

Formation of Volcanos

Subduction Zone Volcano: Large, shifting plates of the Earth's crust bump into each other and one plate falls below the other.

Rift Zone Volcano: The plates of the Earth's crust split apart.

Hot Spot Volcano: The magma rises and melts a hole in the Earth's crust.